

This is a brief comment regarding the unfair practices of the management of XO Communications. I am not a financial expert but I know when I see a con in the works. This is what XO Communications is trying to do to its shareholders, trying to off load their debt onto its shareholders leaving them with useless, pennyless shares. This cannot be tolerated. Please follow up on this action.